

From the Desk of Gene Johnson

Network Marketing is a 60 year-old industry that does about $100 billion annually in 125 different countries. It's an exploding industry with an estimated 50,000 new distributors entering the industry every week. Corporate downsizing, mergers and forced early retirement is taking a toll on the average worker not only in the USA but around the world. The home based business boom is skyrocketing! CNN reported that a new home based business is started every 11 seconds here in the United States alone.

Many economic experts are predicting that network marketing will be the franchising of the 21st century. Franchising currently does over $700 billion a year! In the 1950's many people said that franchising was a scam or scheme. Today, people pay as much as $1 million upfront fees just for the rights to a premier franchise. Yet, the potential income from a single premier franchise is MUCH LOWER than a premier network marketing business.

Since the inception of the Network Marketing industry in the 1950's there has been six recessions in the United States of varying degrees. With each recession the Network Marketing industry has experienced significant growth. Currently our economy is just coming out of an official recession period. Though the economy has faltering in recent years, the indicators are starting to show that the Network Marketing industry is beginning a growth trend here in the United States. Many Network Marketing companies, large and small, have experienced record growth in overall sales and sponsoring.

Look at these statistics; 14 Million people working from home full-time, another 23 million working from home part-time, increasing by over 600,000 people per year. The average work from home income $59,250 per year, 84% of at home workers recommend working from home to others, 29% work at home with other family members, 20% of home based entrepreneurs said that their business grossed between $100,000 and $500,000 last year.

There are also many statistics that show that MLM is still one of the best business methods to go with; 56 million people have their own MLM business in over 100 countries around the world, 13.6 million of these business people are based in the United States alone. The earnings of all the MLM businesses around the world have achieved over $100 billion in sales last year, it is estimated that 80% of the total MLM representatives are females. The whole industry has grown over 90% in the last ten year, making it one of the fastest growing industries around.

We believe that the product for the next decade will be Pain Relief and Health Care.

We are ecstatic that NutraPharma, a publicly traded company (Stock Symbol: NPHC) has chosen TCN to bring its product line to the world. The management of TCN believes that the Nyloxin Product Line will reach record setting
